EXPRESSION OF INTEREST
FOR RECONSTRUCTION OF 43 TOILET BLOCKS IN EXISTING IN 43 SCHOOLS

1. Project Background: For the past 20 years, the Hmar People's Convention has led an uprising and demanded an autonomous district council in the Sinlung hill area, which has caused a decline in education and prevented the Sinlung Hill area from progressing further making them lack behind in development as compared to the other districts in Mizoram. Therefore in 2018, 2nd April a 'Memorandum of Settlement' was signed between the Government of Mizoram and the Hmar People's Convention, and according to the 'Memorandum of settlement' the School Education Department under the Government of Mizoram is bound to improve the education infrastructure and bring up the level of education of the Sinlung Hills Council Area. Therefore, the School Education Department has initiated a project "Reconstruction of 43 toilet block in existing 43 schools in Mizoram especially in the Sinlung Hill Council Area for the better hygiene and for the better development of the students. Therefore, the Government of Mizoram have been accorded and allocated funds under Rural Infrastructure Development Fund (RIDF) - XXVIII, NABARD Loan through Finance Department to the School Education Department for the Project titled "Reconstruction of 43 toilet blocks in 43 existing schools" in Mizoram as follows -
